Biography

SoundEVR is a band centered around making music that gets people to dance, drawing from Funk, RnB, Pop, Jazz and especially House Music. The band consists of Bandleader/Trumpeter Daniel Spearman, Keyboardist Jeremiah Wilson, Guitarist Solomon Williams, Bassist Timothy Ragsdale, Drummer Matthew Chenery, and powerhouse vocalist Bekah Elaine. When you come to a SoundEVR show, expect a musical experience expertly curated to get the adrenaline pumping and the body moving. Our goal isn't just to play the hits, but to weave together musical moments that keep the energy high, much like a DJ that is in sync with their audience. We believe there is no greater feeling than seeing people vibing to our music, so if you aren't dancing, we aren't doing our job. SoundEVR brings together some of Philadelphia's most talented musicians. Collectively, they have performed throughout the city of Philadelphia, hitting the stages of The Brooklyn Bowl, City Winery, Time, Chris's Jazz Cafe and the Black Squirrel Club among many others.
